SERVICE FOR THE LORD'S DAY

First Sunday in Lent

February 14, 2016

GATHERING AROUND THE WORD

O God, by your power may we, with all the saints, comprehend the breadth and length and height and depth of the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge,
so that we may be filled with your fullness. Amen. =

BRINGING THE LIGHT

JOURNEY OF RENEWAL: MEANING AND PURPOSE

In this season of Lent we reflect on the meaning of our lives and on our journey of faith. The candles are burning now, but in the weeks to come the light will slowly fade to darkness. For in retelling the story of Jesus' betrayal, suffering, and death, we find that God brings transformation and new possibility out of darkness. We walk with Christ to the cross; letting go of all that holds us back from new life.

As we extinguish this light, we let go of our wealth. We let go of our constant need for more, the illusion that possessions make us self-sufficient, and admit our need for God.

(A candle is extinguished)

Creator God, remind us again that the world and all that is in it is yours. Teach us to relax our hold on possessions and to cling to you instead. Help us to use the gifts you've given us wisely, to share them generously, joyfully trusting in your abundance. Amen.

Mission Statement of Memorial Presbyterian Church

We are a servant people called to be the light of the world. We come together as members of one body to worship, study, fellowship, witness and serve. In response to God's love in Jesus Christ, we promise to care for and support each other as we share God's love with all people.

*CALL TO WORSHIP

This is the day in which we seek a larger vision of God's mission and wider welcome for all God's children...

In which we put away old and destructive opinions, attitudes, and ideologies that degrade unity and threaten community.

This is the time in which we embrace the mystery and experience lives enlivened and transformed by God's unconditional love....

In which doubt, despair, division, addiction, and anxiety loose their hold on us and we find our liberation in boundless love.

This is the moment in which the desire and pursuit of justice and mercy replace the temptation of power, privilege and relevance....

In which we assume a posture of gentleness and humility as servants who are learning to yield, to begin, to return.

This is the season in which our desert spaces and wilderness wanderings will give way to spiritual energy, spiritual activity, and spiritual renewal. In this journey with Jesus, we discover that his wilderness is not our destiny; this struggle is not our permanent condition. Amen.

*CALL TO CONFESSION

*ADMITTING OUR BROKENNESS

Loving God, we come to you this day with open hearts for you know us, inside and out. We ask for your mercy and forgiveness as we acknowledge the ways that we have wandered from your path. In the face of uncertainty, despair, injustice, frustration, grief and poverty, we have sought meaning and purpose in things and beings other than you. We praise you and thank you for we know that you journey with us even when we diverge from your footpath. We ask you to restore the joy of your salvation in our hearts and minds as we continue to seek your purpose and your call in this season of renewal. Amen.

KNOWN JOYS & CONCERNS
